Tickets Complete For The September Primary Contest

The great mass of petitions filed in the office of the county commissioners for county, borough and township offices, had a tendency to bewilder the force of clerks engaged in sorting them out before the office was closed to petitioners late Tuesday evening. The petitions far outnumber the quantity of other years. The papers were heaped up on great piles and represented every office from the county place down to the election positions. There was considerable interest manifested by candidates for offices at the last moments. Many exhibited an uneasiness lest some one unknown would rush in and become an opponent. Many of them were not disappointed for the busiest time for the clerks was at hte close.

There were no new petitions filed for county offices at the last moment save one presented by certain Democratic petitioners in behalf of Dr. W. J. Potts for coroner.

Friday, September 3 is the last day upon which a candidate for county office can file withdrawal papers and Tuesday, September 7 is the last day for withdrawals for township and borough candidates.

Regular Meeting Of Council

The regular monthly meeting of council was held in the borough building last evening with routine business occupying the greater part of the time. All members were present with the exception of A. N. Hood. All bills were approved and ordered paid. A petition was presented for a sewer on Linden avenue between Third street and Rostraver. It was referred to the sanitary committee.

Five hundred feet of hose was purchased by council for the fire department and the fire committee was instructed to find out what wages should be paid to the fire truck driver.

The engineer was instructed to build a sewer drop at Ninth and Knox avenue and also at the corner of Rostraver and Reed. The sidewalk ordinance was passed on two readings. This ordinance is in reference to the laying of sidewalks on East Schoonmaker avenue. The secretary was instructed to notify L. P Carter to put the garbage wagons in sanitary condition.

K. of M. Picnic

One of the big events of this neighborhood on Labor Day will be the Union Picnic of the Knights of Malta of the upper Monongahela valley, which is to be held at Oakland park out on the Charleroi, Ellsworth street car line The commanderies at Charelroi, Monessen, Donora, Brownsville, Fayette City, Bentleyville Smithton and Perryopolis have joined with Siege of Acre Commandery and Siege of Acre Sisterhood, and the Dames of Malta to make this one of the greatest events of the kind this season

One of the features will be a fine program of sports to be pulled off immediately after the ball game for which sixty prizes have been provided.

Special street cars will leave Fifth and Fallowfield avenues, Charleroi at convenient times during the morning and early afternoon.The fare is fifteen cents the round trip.

Special Trains On P. & L. E. Railroad

M. R. Hepplewhite, of Pittsburgh, traveling agent for the P. & L. E. railroad company, was in the Monongahela valley yesterday looking after business connected with his department. Mr. Hepplewhite is engaged at present promoting the transportation end of the big Fayette County Fair, which will be held at Dawson in about two weeks. At this time the P. & L. E. company will run special excursion trains on the Monongahela division and will use for passenger service, their connecting railroad, running from Fayette City on the Monongahela valley side to Fuller on the Youghiogheny side. This short road of but 8½ miles saves 52 miles of travel to persons along the upper Monongahela valley who are enroute east and southeast.

The connecting road was built virtually for freight traffic, to connect the immense Connellsville coke region with the prosperous Monongahela valley, but it will also be used occasionally for passenger service.

Heretofore it was necessary to haul the coal and other material from this valley down through the McKeesport yards and then back up the Youghiogheny valley to its destination, where by the short line it is now possible to take it across country, cutting off more than a half hundred miles.

Another feature of this short cut off which may eventually be important in this section is that the short line may result in all the fast eastern flyers of the New York Central coming up the Monongahela valley and through the Fayette City cut on their way to Baltimore and the east and southeast. Already there is considerable talk of this. At present the fast trains go out the Yough valley but if they are moved to the Monongahela route, it would mean an immense increase in business. This is an important feature of the near future.

Twenty Mile Race Will Be Feature

Indications point to a record breaking crowd at the Belle Vernon auto races Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 6 It is the star attraction of the day and comes in the afternoon when the formal exercises to be held in different parts of the county will be finished so that it will not interfere with the attendance of anyone who wishes to go.

Seven fast events are on the card for the day and not less than ten professional drivers have entered their cars. All track records will undoubtedly be broken, including those of last Friday when the previous fastest times were shattered by five seconds when Gardner in the Beaver Bullet made the half mile in 34 seconds flat in the lap before he crashed through the fence.

The twenty mile event will be the feature race of the day. It will be a free-for-all affair and about eight cars will start. This long race which means forty laps around the track is a dangerous undertaking and many are of the opinion that no car built can stick to a half mile course for that distance running at a breakneck speed without going through the fence. A race of this length always means several tire changes and the blowing out of tires has already precipitated two of the racers down over the steep embankment connected with the Belle Vernon course Therefore, a repetition of these wrecks with probably fatal results will not come as surprises next Monday.

Gardner, Fetterman and Johnson will be the most dangerous contenders for the money in this event and the extreme rivalry which is known to exist among these three assures some spectacular driving.

—A fine Nestor comedy tomorrow at the Olympic. 1t

School Bells Will Ring For First Time Monday Morning

The advance squad of out-of town school teachers has arrived and boarding houses and hotels will be taxed for room before the end of the week, as a great number of the force of seventy-two public school instructors are from other towns. Monessen now has the distinction of employing more teachers than any other town in the Monongahela valley.

The School Board met Tuesday evening in the superintendent's office in the Jefferson building and completed all arrangements for the opening of the school term Monday morning Approval was given for new equipment in the High school building and the only vacancy existing, caused by the resignation of Miss Elsie Tobin, who goes to Youngstown, O., was filled by the election of Miss Pearl Chalfant of Speers.

Pupils entering school for the first time were enrolled this morning at the superintendent's office in the Jefferson building and examinations for entrance into the High school will be held tomorrow morning. At the same time in the Jefferson building, pupils who have been studying during the summer months to remove conditions, will be examined or will make arrangements to be examined later by the teacher in the subject in which they are to be examined.

The school calendar for the year is as follows: School opens Monday, September 6 and the first vacation will be on Thanksgiving, November 25. School will not resume until the Monday following Thanksgiving. The teachers' institute will be held the week of November 29 and the pupils will have a long vacation from Thanksgiving until the week following teachers' institute. The holiday vacation will begin Friday, December 24 and will continue until January 3. The first term will end January 26 and the second term begin the next day. Good Friday will be the next holiday on Friday, April 21, The baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, May 28, commencement exercises Wednesday, May 31, and school will be brought to an end with the annual school picnic, Thursday, June 1.

John Is A Hustler

John Firill has accepted a position as news gatherer for this paper and is making the rounds of the town daily. He is rather small to write the items and when he calls at the homes and business places of people, he asks that the items be written so as to insure publication. This boy is a willing worker and he deserves every encouragement people can give him. His success at any thing he has undertaken gives us assurance that some day he will make his mark in the world. No boy ever started in life as energetic and ambitious as John but what he succeeded. Show this boy a litlte courtesy when he calls at the home and see what the result will be. He is deserving, help him win.

Man Top Heavy

"Modern man is a top heavy being whose brain is disproportionately superior to his other organs," says the New York Medical Journal, and then goes to prove that the war in Europe is the result of brain fag. The Journal believes that the stress and hard mental work of this age tended inevitably to the reassertion of the primitive impulses. Something had to snap, and when it did, the result was the war. Other nations accuse Americans of living too fast. But they do not see that we combine pleasure with work to such a degree that, if we don't let down on the play, we are apt to remain normal human beings. For instance, the tired business man takes a couple of hours from the office and goes to the ball grounds, where he yells like a Comanche Indian, howls like a steam siren, cusses the visiting team and throws pop-bottles at the umpire. The women relieve the tension of modern life by dancing or motoring or strenuous physical exercise on the golf course or tennis courts. The use of tobacco is man's first aid toward relief of taut nerves. It is said that the sudden stoppage of drugs would result inevitably in a nation-wide irritability that would result in a possible social upheaval. American men work hard and live fast. It is better they should find relief in harmless amusements and stimulants than to go on until something snaps and the result is a war.

The Saving Habit

The constant drive for "thrift" is having effect not only among the older people, but among school children, as seen by the report of sixty-one savings banks formed in as many Chicago public schools last year. The report shows that 13,638 children saved $27,115.94, and of this amount $11,200.90 has been transferred to regular banks. Six pupils of the seventh and eighth grades conduct the banks. Any sum from five cents up may be deposited, and as soon as a pupil's account amounts to $5, it is transferred to a regular bank and an account with the pupil is opened. It is reasonable to suppose that rural schools will adopt the teaching of thrift as a subsidiary course. The money could be deposited in the local banks in savings departments to pay three or three and one-half per cent interest. When the account amounts to $25, it could be withdrawn and a $100 bond paying four and a half or five percent. could be bought. Many reputable bond houses will sell a hundred dollar bond on the installment plan, paying the full amount of interest on the amount deposited until the face value of the bond is paid in full.

SUFFRAGE NEWS

By the Rev. Frank M. Silsley

When I left my pastorate at Meadville, Pa., to come to Seattle, I was lukewarm on the subject of woman suffrage. That was several years ago. Today there is no more staunch supporter of "votes for women" in the entire country than I am. Living in a state where the women have the same political rights as the men has shown me a great light. For woman suffrage is no theory in Washington. So successful is its operation here that one who opposed it would be regarded as an open-mouthed wonder.

I was converted not by progoganda but by observing the practical working of women suffrage. Many important facts concerning its real results were driven home to me.

First—Suffrage elevates women. All the prejudiced talk about taking from woman her charms and making her masculine is the most specious rot. I know from my study of Washington that it sharpens and ennobles woman, and intensifies her interest in her home, her family, her church and everything good in life. It is to the eternal credit of the women of Washington that they have faith in their women and have no sympathy with the teeming tommy-rot that voting degrades women.

It is life's history that responsibility enlarges personality and some of the greatest women in the country are to be found in suffrage states. In my judgment, a woman no more loses her charms by voting than a man loses his charm by praying.

Second—Woman's suffrage makes women students of public questions, social questions, humanitarian problems. They have enthusiasm for the ideals and concerns of the day in Washington. It is true, whether you believe it or not, that the suffrage states have more political intelligence per capita than the non-suffrage states. "Oh," someone says, "I don't want my wife or sister or daughter talking politics." But it is far better for a good many women I know to talk politics than to talk bridge-whist, and tango and vanity and their neighbors' weaknesses.

Third—The effect of woman suffrage is to fire the civic conscience and to encourage reform movements. Right here in Washington the fact that women vote is a check upon ringsters and corruptionists. The bosses damn the women's vote from one end of the nation to the other. They are consistent, for they realize their foe in the sensitive and aroused and militant conscience of women. There are some distinguished gentlemen in Pennsylvania who, I surmise, will retire when the women of Old Penn come "to their own."

That the women aid reform movements is shown locally by the fact that they have contributed to the passage of such worthy acts; as a child labor law, a minimum wage law, the lazy husband act, the mothers' pension law and advanced good morals laws. I was here all during the campaign last fall and I saw for myself that the women's vote carried the good laws.

Take down your map and observe that the great reform states are the suffrage states. The grafters, the gamblers, the dive-keepers, the mate-rialists of all sorts are a unit against woman suffrage. Can you tell me why? Is it not because they fear death and crepe for their business?

I love Pennsylvania and I love no place better than Meadville. I should like to have Pennsylvania redeemed from the reputation of being politically the worst state in the union. I believe that the women's votes will do it and I hope that you will give them a chance to try.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Peter Radford
On Too Many Lawyers.

When the sheriff cries out "Oh! yes, Oh! yes, the court is now in session," the farmer should tighten the belt around his belly for it is he who pays the cost. When the lawyer says "May it please the court," the farmer has to shorten the shirts of his children for they must foot the bill and when the legislature announces "Be it enacted," unborn babes may well kick against their prison walls for they may live to pay the penalty. We have too many laws, too many lawyers and too much government. No man dares to run a business without lawyers to the right of him and lawyers to the left of him. Expensive litigation and excessive legislation are clogging the wheels of progress. To meet this situation the railroads are ofttimes compelled to take off a train and put on a lawyer; the manufacturer is oft times compelled to close down a furnace and put on a lawyer; the farmer is ofttimes compelled to sell a steer to pay the lawyers, for the man who digs in the ground usually pays the freight and every article which he buys carries on the price tag court costs and lawyers' fees.

There are in the United States 115,000 lawyers and about twenty thousand courts of various jurisdiction which cost the people of this nation approximately $1,500,000,000 per annum. It costs more to run the legal affairs in this nation than it does to clothe all the people. It costs more to settle legal disputes than it does to run our educational and religious institutions and care for the health of all the people combined. Less than three per cent of our population are able to employ lawyers to interpret the mass of legal lore that burdens our statute books. The remaining ninety-seven per cent have to take the raw stuff right out of the mill.

We are a government by lawyers and for lawyers. It is they who are responsible for the legislative cure-alls, espionage, unrest and business disturbance that infest our statute books, for at the source of most every law is a lawyer. They have in no case lowered the price of the commodity or benefited the people but they have burdened industry and restrained commerce and have built up their profession until it dominates government, tyrannizes business and terrorizes progress.

There is no more valuable citizen in our land than a patriotic, able conscientious lawyer, seeking to direct the ship of state through the tortuous channels of 20th century civilization; piloting a business through the legislative billows that dash with maddened fury across its pathway and whose genius can calm the fear and command the confidence of the people in the integrity of Republican institutions, but there is no greater peril to society than a political lawyer who seeks to prostitute government, stain business with suspicion and arouse distrust in the minds of the people. Unfortunately the latter class are a strong factor in the profession, ofttimes in high places, and unless the better class unite in driving the quacks from their midst an outraged public opinion will administer a rebuke that will humble the pride, crush the hope and smash the power of the profession and reduce its possibilities to ashes.

Ralph Peters
On Railway Mail Pay

A controversy has been raging in the columns of the press between the railroads and the Federal Post Office Department over the question of proper compensation for handling the United States mails. Mr. Ralph Peters, Chairman of the Railway Mail Committee, when asked to state the railroad side of the controversy to the American farmer, said in part:

"The railway mail pay question will be settled—and settled permanently and with justice to all concerned—as soon as the American people realize that the whole subject, while seemingly complicated and technical, boils down to a few simple points of fair business dealing which no one need be a rate expert to understand.

"The first is that the Post Office Department weighs the mails, and readjusts the pay of the railroads, only once in four years. This compels the railroads to carry the increase in the mail tonnage during the intervening years without pay—manifestly an injustice in the case of a rapidly growing business. One consequence has been that last year the railroads carried fully half the parcel post for nothing.

"A second point is this: In addition to carrying the mails, the railroads are required to operate many traveling post offices for sorting and distributing the mails while in transit. But the Post Office Department pays for such post offices only where they occupy whole cars, and pays nothing in the many cases in which it merely requires the use of post office apartments in combination cars, although such apartments differ from the full railway post office cars only in size. More than 4,200 apartments of this character have been fitted up, and are maintained for the exclusive use of the Post Office Department. Failure to pay for them has been an especial hardship to the smaller roads on which the Department does not find it necessary to utilize whole cars.

"One last point: In thousands of instances (though not in all) the Post Office Department requires the railroads to carry the mails back and forth between railroad stations and post offices, but pays them nothing for this extra service beyond the rates covering the rail transportation. The railroads have no choice but to perform this additional service gratis, or refuse to carry the mails at all.

"Now for the remedies the railroads ask: They do not ask to have the mails weighed daily, or to have each shipment weighed and paid for separately, as is done in the case of private shippers. They merely ask to have the mails weighed, and the pay of the railroads adjusted, at least once a year, instead of once in four years. They also ask that apartment post office cars be paid for, at reasonable rates, according to size. Lastly, they ask that the Post Office Department cease to require of them free messenger service between stations and post offices, and either relieve them of this service or pay fairly for it. These are the reforms the railroads ask of Congress. They gladly lay these reforms before the public, confident that they will appeal to the common sense and fairness of American voters."

Hon. Elihu Root
On Woman's Sphere

The question of Woman Suffrage is an issue before the American people. Twelve states have adopted it, four more states vote upon it this fall and it is strongly urged that it become a platform demand of the national political parties. It is therefore the privilege and the duty of every voter to study carefully this subject. Hon. Elihu Root, in discussing this question before the constitutional convention of New York, recently said in part:

"I am opposed to the granting of suffrage to women, because I believe that it would be a loss to women, to all women and to every woman; and because I believe it would be an injury to the state, and to every man and every woman in the state. It would be useless to argue this if the right of suffrage were a natural right. If it were a natural right, then women should have it though the heavens fall. But if there be any one thing settled in the long discussion of this subject, it is that suffrage is not a natural right, but is simply a means of government, and the sole question to be discussed is whether government by the suffrage of men and women will be better government than by the suffrage of men alone.

"Into my judgment, sir, there enters no element of the inferiority of woman. It is not that woman is inferior to man, but it is that woman is different from man; that in the distribution of powers, of capacities, of qualities, our Maker has created man adapted to the performance of certain functions in the economy of nature and society, and woman adapted to the performance of other functions.

"Woman rules today by the sweet and noble influences of her character. Put woman into the arena of conflict and she abandons these great weapons which control the world, and she takes into her hands, feeble and nerveless for strife, weapons with which she is unfamiliar and which she is unable to wield. Woman in strife becomes hard, harsh, unlovable, repulsive; as far removed from that gentle creature to whom we all owe allegiance and to whom we confess submission, as the heaven is removed from the earth.

"The whole science of government is the science of protecting life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness. In the divine distribution of powers, the duty and the right of protection rests with the male. It is so throughout nature. It is so with men, and I, for one, will never consent to part with the divine right of protecting my wife, my daughter, the women whom I love, and the women whom I respect, exercising the birthright of man, and place that high duty in the weak and nerveless hands of those designed by God to be protected rather than to engage in the stern warfare of government. In my judgment, this whole movement arises from a false conception of the duty and of the right of both men and women.

"The time will never come when the line of demarcation between the functions of the two sexes will be broken down. I believe it to be false philosophy; I believe that it is an attempt to turn backward upon the line of social development, and that if the step ever be taken, we go centuries backward on the march towards a higher, nobler and purer civilization, which must be found not in the confusion, but in the higher differentiation of the sexes."

DRAMATISTS FIND FIELD FOR TALENTS

FAMOUS AUTHORS NOW WRITE DRAMAS FOR FILM COMPANIES.

W. H. OSBORNE THE LATEST.

Scion of Prominent Family and Noted Author Writes Great Serial for Pathe.

William Hamilton Osborne, author of the new serial "Neal of the Navy", is the latest of the modern popular authors to enlist in the moving picture line. He has already written five hundred short stories in the past thirteen years, and is also the author of several best selling novels, "The Red Mouse", "The Catspaw", "The Blue Buckle" and "The Running Fight." He never really attempted to write moving pictures straight off—or on—the reel, until he tackled "Neal of the Navy," for Pathe. Mr. Osborne was attracted to the Navy as a fine background for a story of adventure, and for a year past he has been delving not only into the characteristics of the navy itself as an institution, but also into the records of the Secret Service, so far as the same were obtainable. He has coupled this authentic knowledge to his own imagination and is turning out a series, which, while it pictures the United States Navy from all its advantageous standpoints, also involves an exciting novel story of adventure in the toils of which the hero is constantly finding himself baffled. The heroine is a modern young girl whose ancestry is shrouded in mystery, but whose fortunes are bound up with an unusual trio of adventurers who are constantly under the surveillance of the government. Lillian Lorraine is featured as the heroine and Wm. Courtleigh, Jr., as the hero. The series is being produced by Balboa for Pathe, and will begin to appear on the screens in September. Permits for the taking of the naval pictures have already been obtained from the authorities at Washington.

Navy In His Family.

Both Navy and Army figure largely in the family of Mr. Osborne. The late Secretary of the Navy, George M. Robeson, now deceased, was one of his ancestors, and an uncle of Osborne's has, until his recent retirement, been an official in the Navy for many years. His great grandfather was quartermaster-general of the State of New Jersey. Another uncle was the youngest commissioned officer in the Federal army in the Civil War, Capt. Ellis Hamilton, killed at Bull Run, at the age of 18.

William Hamilton Osborne comes of an illustrious ancestry—his great grandfather and granduncle — two William Peuningtons, were both Governors of the State of New Jersey and one of them at one time Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington. Another ancestor was Chancellor Halstead of New Jersey.

His grandfather was a well known editor, and his father an old time lawyer of New York and New Jersey. He was born in Newark, N. J. and has always lived there. Mrs. William Hamilton Osborne is a well known clubwoman of Newark, being corresponding secretary of the Contemporary of N. J., the largest woman's club in the world.

FILM VERSIONS OF NOVELS.

It is probable that within the near future one will be able to see his favorite novel, whatever it is, in pictures. It has been well known for some time that Pathe has been in the market buying right and left the picture rights of famous novels and plays that seem to be best adapted for motion pictures. Among them are numbered: "The Beloved Vagabond" and "Simon, the Jester," by William J. Locke; "The Galloper," by Richard Harding Davis; "Via Wireless," by Paul Armstrong and Winchell Smith; "Comrade John," by Henry Kitchell Webster and Samuel Merwin; "The Closing Net," by H. C. Rowland; "Nedra," by George Barr McCutcheon; "The New Adventures of Wallingford," by George Randolph Chester; "The Weavers," by Gilbert Parker; "Mary's Lamb," by Richard Carle.

A Resident Known to all our Readers Relates an Experience

Readers of the Independent have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proven kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experiences told are not those of unknown persons, living far away. The cases are Monessen cases, told by Monessen people.

Mrs. R. Gilmore, 102½ First street, Monessen, says: "I suffered for years from a lame back and often when I stooped, the misery was so intense that I cried aloud. If I moved suddenly, it seemed as if something snapped in my back. When I exerted myself in sweeping or doing housework, the pain was unbearable. I felt tired and listless all the time and my head ached. My eyes were affected and I was all worn out. I consulted several doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, and finally I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. A few boxes made me quite well. Others of the family used Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney tonic and think highly of them."

THEATRE NOTES

The management of the Olympic theatre takes great pride in the serials which are recognized as the greatest on the market. Several of the series are nearing an end but the theatre patrons are being treated to pictures of extraordinary merit in the Metro films which appear every Friday, and Broadway Universal features. This evening's program will be featured by Marie Tempest in Pudding."

Mary Pickford in "Mistress Nell" was the attraction at the Star theatre last evening and crowded houses witnessed each performance. The Fox and Paramount programs are becoming popular here and the public anxiously awaits the announcement of one of their special programs. Next week will be a special occasion at the Star with a special program every night.

The Bijou theatre is the latest theatre advertiser to contract for regular space in the Daily Independent. Under new management this popular little playhouse with 300 seats is the mecca for followers of Charley Chaplin and little Mary Pickford. Their advertisement will appear every day on the second page of this paper and patrons are requested to watch for the special program.

Dougherty Announces

M. A. Dougherty authorizes his announcement for the four year councilmanic position in the First ward. Mr. Dougherty is too well known among our people to need an introduction. He has been a resident of Monessen for the past eight years and during this length of time he has resided in the First ward. By occupation he is a roller in the Tin mill and is known and respected by all of his fellow workmen. He has an interest in the town and offers his services in a civic way. If nominated and elected. Mr. Dougherty promises he will do all in his power for the advancement of the community of which he is a part, and will strive to give the people an honest and economical administration. He solicits the support of the voters of his ward at the primary election September 21st.

Court Case

A very prominent case was placed on trial Wednesday morning before Judge Lucien W. Doty in which the parties came from Pricedale. Frank Sinko is charged by Joe Haydn with making a knife stab at him and cutting his right trouser leg about twenty inches and shooting him through the right arm at the elbow. The fight trouble was staged near a hotel at Pricedale on the evening of July 15. While in the barroom the defendant told Joe to come out and he would give him a good beating It was stated that near closing time when the prosecutor was on his way home, Sinko laid in wait for him and made a knife stroke at him, and seeing that he missed him, he pulled his revolver and shot him in the arm. The defendant intimitated that a fight was brought on and that he had to offer a defense.

STATEMENTS UNFOUNDED

Edward Nixon, who has announced as a candidate for council in the First ward, wishes to correct the statements that he is out for the two year term Mr Nixon has made his announcement and has cards printed showing him as a candidate for the four year term.

Jewish New Year

The Jewish New Year begins on Wednesday evening, September 8th, with an ornate solemn service in the temples and synagogues. The Thursday morning service comprises a more elaborate form of worship and combines some vestiges of antique ritual with expressions of human experiences and feelings true and real for everybody and at all times.

The Jewish New Year's Festival is the oldest of all festivals celebrated in the civilized world. But is unique for its significance as well as for its antiquity. The secular New Year (on Jonuary 1) is a day of gratifications; men rejoice in what they have achieved; it is a day for sordid inventories. The Jewish New Years Day, however, is a time for serious thought on the meaning of life; it evokes pious contemplation of the difficult and inevasible problem as to right and wrong and its appeal is not that we should get more out of practical life but value more genuinely, more truthfully, more normally the life that God has entrusted to us.

The antique features of the ritual of that Day express the aspirations all men feel equally. The Trumpet Calls, constituting the central part in the worship of the day are appeals for the moral stir which men feel when they contemplate their experiences and seek for re-inforcement of their hopes. The calls are also an appeal to the large sense of life. Our week day wishes and prayers are self centered and do not give us a perspective of our relations and obligations to the community and fellowman, and of their influence upon us. But the New Years Day offers us an occasion to re-affirm our respect for and trust in Providence which is the organization of all lives into an all-encompassing justice. The Jew comprehends this as a comfort in the case of misfortunes and as monition in the successes he may have. The function of the New Years Day is to establish a moral judgment in our life and experiences.

Wrong Impression

We wish to correct the impression that James Gialas the grocer at 449 Schoonmaker avenue, was the person arrested for gambling. The person arrested at 843 Schoonmaker avenue was James Kellis and is an entirely different person. Mr. Gialas the grocer, has been a resident of Monessen for the past twelve years and is respected by all who know him and has never been in any trouble.

A Strong Candidate for County Treasurer

WILLIAM H. ROSE

William H. Rose, of Greensburg, is a candidate for County Treasurer. He is a son of the late C. J. Rose. He was born and reared on a farm in East Huntingdon Township. Going to Greensburg about 16 years ago when his father moved to the county seat.

He was formerly engaged in the real estate and insurance business there and for the past six years has been in the automobile business. The Rose family is one of the oldest and best known families in the Southern part of the county. They have been staunch supporters of the Republican party ever since the party has existed, and none of its members has ever held or asked for county office.

Mr. Rose appreciates the importance of the office, the time and attention it requires, and if elected, he pledges his most earnest and continued efforts to discharge its duties faithfully.

This paper leads all Westmoreland county in its news features and the amount of advertising it carries. This fact certainly demonstrates a worthy confidence.
